DEVELOPMENT PERMIT APPLICATION GUIDELINES

The Local Government Act gives Council the authority to designate areas of the City as Development Permit Areas and to use development guidelines in each of these areas. In general, these guidelines aim to protect the environment and farming, protect from hazardous conditions and guide the form and character of commercial, industrial, multi-residential and intensive residential development.

Development permits regulate form and character, signage, siting, landscaping, screening, lighting and parking. For more information on each Development Permit Area, and the guidelines for development, see Section 8 of the City of Courtenay Official Community Plan.

WITHIN A DEVELOPMENT PERMIT AREA, A PERMIT IS REQUIRED FOR THE FOLLOWING

- Subdivision
- Construction of, addition to or alteration of a building or structure, land or parking area
- Alteration of land in an environmentally sensitive area or land that is subject to hazardous conditions

Unless exempted under one of the conditions in the following section.

A DEVELOPMENT PERMIT IS NOT REQUIRED FOR THE FOLLOWING

- Subdivision involving three or less lots (unless located within an Environmental Development Permit Area)
- Construction of, addition to or alteration of an existing building that is less than 25% of the existing floor area (to a maximum of 200 m²) or a change to the exterior of the building on any one side is less than 25% of the building face (unless located within an Environmental Development Permit Area)
- Replacing windows or a roof
- Painting the exterior of a building
- Constructing a fence (unless located within an Environmental Development Permit Area)

APPLICATION PROCESS

Development Permits are considered by Council or the Director of Development Services. For information on which applications can be considered by the Director of Development Services, see Section 15 of the Development Application Procedure Bylaw No. 2790, 2014. For most applications, the process is as follows (please note that these time frames are approximate and that more complex applications can take up to 12 months or longer):

1. Applicant is encouraged to arrange a pre-application meeting pursuant to Section 17 of Development Application Procedure Bylaw No. 2790, 2014
2. After receiving a complete application, the application is reviewed by the Planning Department (2-4 weeks)
3. Referrals are issued to other City departments and external agencies (4 weeks)
4. The applicant will conduct a Public Information Meeting if the application includes a variance
5. Referrals are returned to the applicant for outstanding issues to be addressed (2-4 weeks)
6. The Planning Department prepares a report to Council or a memo to the Director of Development Services (2 weeks)
7. Council or the Director of Development Services considers the application and may issue, table or refuse the permit or direct that a public meeting be held
8. If the application is approved a notice will be placed on the property Title referencing the permit

If the permit is issued, it is valid for 12 months. If it is refused, no substantially similar application will be considered by Council for 12 months.
